The opening of the FAFSA has been delayed this year due to changes to the application. Follow the below instructions to create your required Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID number. Save that information. Then, complete your FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1, 2024.

*You will use prior-year income and tax information, for 24-25 that is 2022 info

If your family's income has changed significantly since the 2022 tax year, you may be eligible to have adjustments made to your financial aid award. Contact the financial aid office for more information.

NOTE: The FAFSA asks for a marital status as of the day you complete the FAFSA. So, if you're married currently but weren't in 2022 (and did not file taxes as "married"), you'll need to add your spouse's income to your FAFSA.

FASFA ID (NEEDED TO ELECTRONICALLY SIGN YOUR APPLICATION)

Your FSA ID identifies you as someone who has the right to access your own personal information on ED websites such as studentaid.gov. FAFSA IDs do not expire.
